

Game Name:

A JOURNEY INTO THE MOUTH

Objective: To explore the roof of the mouth/ organs of speech.

Material: The story pictures and a mirror

Procedure:

Explain children that they are going to go into a journey into their mouths and discover new places.

Suggest starting by the tip of the feather. It is a metaphorical word used in the story to refer to the tip of the tongue. Some other metaphorical words in the story include a 'comfy sofa' that is behind the upper teeth. It is a metaphorical word used in the story to refer to the alveolar ridge. Teachers can also refer to the 'little hill' behind their upper teeth.

Teacher: Let`s begin!! Are you ready!!!

Take a mirror. Now, look inside your mouth. What can you see?

Now, find the tip of the feather inside your mouth ! What is it? Do you know any other name for it?

Let`s use this feather to discover other places.

Use the tip of the feather to feel the upper teeth. How does it feel? soft? hard?

Now, let`s use the tip of the feather to find the comfy sofa that is behind the upper teeth. Can you feel it? It is like a small hill. Is it comfy?.
