

Game Name: Origami Statues

Objective: To develop phonological awareness on the production of aspiration

Material: An Aspiration Origami

Procedure

This is a variation of the traditional game 'Statues'

The teacher flips over a flashcard, which include words with or without aspiration. She also says the word out loud.

If students listen to the word and recognize aspiration of /p/, /t/ or /k/ they blow the Origami away. If the word the teacher says is not pronounced with aspiration they should keep still. If they move, they are out of the game.

The winner is the child that keeps freezing and moving until the end of the game
